Course Information

COURSE THEME

In many ways, the Seventies is a forgotten decade. Wedged between the turbulent 1960s and the decadent 1980s, it's not a period people often look back upon fondly. With the Vietnam War raging, the Watergate Scandal unfurling, and an unyielding "stagflation" gripping the economy, maybe that's no surprise. Still, the 1970s are ripe for reconsideration. Beyond discos and bell-bottoms, this was an era of profound social change in America. Even as the country's mid-century optimism faded, the 70's still saw the rise of the modern environmental movement, a second wave of feminism, and a burgeoning fight for gay rights. This term, your ENGL 1A course will explore the complex facets of life in the 1970s through a diverse range of texts and media. Along the way, we'll consider how this often-ignored decade continues to shape the world we live in today.

Classroom Protocols

POLICIES FOR THIS COURSE

General:

- I am happy to call you by whatever name you prefer, but please be consistent. For example, if your name is John Wilson, but you go by Jack, then use “John (Jack) Wilson” on all assignments. Set your preferred name in Canvas, using these instructions: sjsu.edu/registrar/docs/Preferred_name_setting.pdf.
- You can record the correct pronunciation of your name on Canvas via NameCoach (sjsu.edu/ecampus/software-tools/teaching-tools/namecoach/).
- I am also happy to use your preferred pronouns—and I apologize in advance if I occasionally slip up. Easily set your preferred pronouns in Canvas at sjsu.edu/learnanywhere/how-tos/canvas/add-pronouns.php.

Grades and grading:

- There is a participation component to your grade. It can mean the difference between letter grades. To receive all, or most, of these points, it is important that you actively engage in the classroom experience (e.g., frequently ask questions and/or comment). Simply attending class is not sufficient to garner full points, as they are based on active participation, not attendance.
- Check Canvas for your most up-to-date grades.
- Please note, there will be no extra-credit opportunities this semester.

Assignments:

- There will be no late work accepted.

- Without prior notification, missed presentations cannot be made up. If you must miss your presentation date, please make prior arrangements with me.
- Unless otherwise noted, all assignments will be submitted via Canvas.

Zoom practices and etiquette:

- You are highly encouraged to turn your cameras on during class. Being on camera helps you not only feel more engaged with the class, it also helps me and your classmates get to know you better. If you have no reason to have it off, please turn yours on.
- As part of your participation grade, you must have a clear profile photo uploaded into your Zoom and Canvas accounts. This is especially important given our online-only setting. Please do this during the first two weeks of school.
- Whenever you are on camera, please dress appropriately.
- All classes may be recorded. University policy (S12-7) requires consent from all individuals who appear in a class recording. If you do not wish to be identified in a recording, feel free to utilize the "Anonymous Option," but please notify me beforehand.
- Please obtain permission from me before recording any class or portion of a class. Note that any personal recordings are strictly for private use and cannot be shared with anyone outside of class.

Email:

- Please direct all emails to daniel.hendeldelao@sjsu.edu.
- In emails to me, please indicate your section number in the subject line, or somewhere in the body. This helps me reply to your email in a timelier manner.
- Due to the high volume of email I receive, it may take me up to 48 hours to respond. Also, I am never offended by a polite reminder or follow up.
- Unless it affects your presentation, there is no need to contact me if you miss class.
- If you are absent, please do not message me to ask what you missed in class. You should have the contact information of at least two other classmates. They should be able to fill you in on any relevant information. If you still have a question, then please feel free to contact me.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

GE Area 1A: Written Communication I

Written Communication I courses cultivate an understanding of the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication, with special attention to the nature of writing at the university. GE Area 1A Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of an Area 1A course, students should be able to:

1. demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the content, context, effectiveness, and forms of written communication;
2. perform essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing);
3. articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of texts, such as purpose, audience, context, and rhetorical appeals;
4. integrate their ideas and those of others by synthesizing, explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres; and
5. demonstrate college-level language use, clarity, and grammatical abilities in writing.

Writing requirement

Area 1A courses require a minimum of 6000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form.

✓ Grading Information

DEPARTMENT GRADING POLICY

Requirements for particular assignments will vary, but in all cases essay grades will reflect the paper's effectiveness, which are broken down into three major areas: content (this includes maturity and sophistication of thought), organization, and expression. All assignments, quizzes, and exams are graded on a traditional A-F scale. The following are the criteria by which essays are typically evaluated in first-year writing courses:

- An "A" essay is organized and well-developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment, written in a unique and compelling voice. It will show the student's ability to use language effectively with a solid command of grammar, mechanics, and usage.
- A "B" essay demonstrates competence in the same categories as an "A" essay, but it may show slight weakness in one of these areas. It will respond to the topic suitably and may contain some grammatical, mechanical or usage errors.
- A "C" essay will complete the requirements of the assignment, but it will show weaknesses in fundamentals, such as development. It may show weakness in mastery of grammar, mechanics, usage, or voice.
- A "D" essay will neglect to meet all the requirements of the assignment or may be superficial in its treatment of the topic. It may lack development or fail to stay on topic. It may contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that interfere with reader comprehension.
- An "F" essay does not fulfill the requirements of the assignment.
